

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, National Health Center Week celebrates the legacy and future of community health centers like Alluvion Health, which for decades have provided high-quality, affordable care to millions of Americans; and

WHEREAS, Alluvion Health, a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC), marks its 30th year serving Great Falls and North Central Montana, advancing its mission to “Create and Inspire Healthier Lives” through integrated, whole-person care; and

WHEREAS, Alluvion Health has grown from a single-site clinic into a trusted community institution, offering medical, dental, behavior health, pharmacy, and support services to individuals and families regardless of income or insurance status; and

WHEREAS, Alluvion’s innovative model-including school-based clinics, wraparound care, and community partnerships-ensures people receive the care they need, where and when they need it; and

WHEREAS, this year’s theme, “Past, Present, Future,” reflects the lasting contributions of health centers and their vital role in building healthier, more equitable communities; and

WHEREAS, we recognize the physicians, nurses, behavioral health providers, dental and pharmacy teams, care coordinators, administrators, volunteers, board members, and community partners who have made a difference over the past three decades.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CORY REEVES, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF GREAT FALLS, do hereby proclaim August 3 - 9, 2025 as in the City of Great Falls, and encourage all citizens to celebrate the impact of Alluvion Health and community health centers nationwide as they shape a stronger, healthier future for all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City to be affixed this 8th day of July, 2025.

Cory Reeves, Mayor
