OTHER BUSINESS

PETITIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

- One resident brought forth several issues. Two were civil matters. The third was about a neighbor's flood lights. She was informed to file a Citizen Complaint Form online with the city and contact Heather Rohlf in Planning and Community Development for assistance.
- Information was presented by Angela Kukkala of Grace Haven. Grace Haven is Sober Transition Housing for female veterans and their kids. See the sheet provided for more details.
  - Two main issues that were asked.
    - What is the plan for securing an area for the kids to play? They will be installing a security fence for the kids to secure a play area outside.
    - Where will residents be parking? There is parking in the alley that will be used.
- Spectrum Home Health requested assistance regarding a pedestrian crosswalk for their employees. Carl will talk with Eric Boyd, Manager of Streets and Traffic, about the way ahead.
- Park and Rec was contacted about e-bikes on walking trails as a safety issue. Carl will discuss this with P&R.
- There was a concern about the north side of 13th Ave S that goes up the hill next to Warden Park. It becomes dangerous for traffic traveling west up the hill when private vehicles park on the north side of 13th Ave S along the curb next to Warden Park. Carl will discuss this with the city staff.
- What do you do about barking dogs? Lanni recommended going to the city website and completing a bark log.
- The next Council of Councils is January 23rd.

ADJOURNED

The Meeting was adjourned at 7:18 with a motion from Tad and a second from Carl. Motion Carried 5/0.
