Neighborhood Council

District #1

Date: October 8, 2024 - 7:00 PM
Meadowlark Elementary School

Old Business-

--Minutes-Moved by Mike Flaherty, Second by Trevor Cummings to accept minutes from Past meeting of September 10, 2024. Passed 3-0

--Discussed GFPD increased patrol in the area neighbors noticed a downward trend in speeding.

New Business-

--Cascade County Sherriff, Jesse Slaughter, came to raise public awareness about the costs of the Cascade County Jail and to ask the public to brainstorm ideas on how to reduce the gap between revenues and expenses

Neighborhood Concerns-

--Neighbors still concerned with the increased flow of traffic from the county residents living southwest of Fox Farm

--Marilyn Rubino submitted a letter to Mike Flaherty addressing her concerns about parking on Alder from Fox Farm to Meadowlark Dr. It seems that parking is currently allowed on both sided of the street, consequently, traffic is reduced to one way. She asks the council to support reducing the allowed parking to one side of the street only.

Agenda for November 12 meeting-

--Address the parking/traffic bottleneck concerns on Alder Dr
