Old Business

No Old Business.

New Business

New city commissioner Bob Kelly expressed his appreciation and invited everyone to attend commission meetings.

Officer Shane Daniels, who assigned to the Housing Authority and the seven other Housing Authority sites along with Officer Henry, reported on the crime rate is down by at least 30%. Also that the low income housing has a lower crime rate partially due to the residents are working with the Officers to help stop crime.

Kevin Hager, Director of Great Falls Housing Authority reported the impact of community policing, doing background check and having the presence of the Officers in the area. Also having youth activities club 2 times a month i.e. Movies, skiing, picnics and summer meals in the youth center has made a difference in the repo ire with youth. Kevin also reported on the refurbishing of several units.

Other Business

Policy advisory next week with topic of crime in schools

Student Input

Several students were present and addressed school crimes. Their concerns were not having cameras. The price of cameras and coax are sometimes cost prohibitive. Officer Daniels suggested talking to school officials.

Adjourn

Joe L. made motion to adjourn and Joe Moll 2nd motion
