Officer Tad Kimmett- Community Policing Officer

- Very little crime, many abandoned vehicle calls, 2 robberies for the year and minor vandalism and theft calls
- Pastor Rob asked about vandalism to the church. Officer Kimmett said to call it in and they would up the patrol in the area. Pastor Rob had caught kids in the act and talked to their families. Officer Kimmett said they could reinforce that talk with the children.
- Mary Ann asked about children not buckled in cars and was told to call it into the center and they would get someone out there as Mary Ann said this was an everyday occurrence.
- Bruce Morgan, Cindy and Jim Hall and Jamie Mann were present and are home owners on the 6th Ave NW Block. Their concern is a renter running a towing truck company from his home. The tow-man has many vehicles for his business taking up parking in front of their homes, they are speeding through the neighborhood and home owners are concerned for their children.
