7 PM meeting called to order by Chairman Leggett

Pledge of Allegiance recited.

- July meeting minutes approved.
- Old Business:
 - Lincoln School traffic issues: A letter by Jerry McKinley formally requesting the School Zone at Lincoln school be extended to include the crossing on 25th St S. was discussed. The council was informed that approval by the state and the city commission were required. Preparations were proceeding and full approval should be received shortly.
 - Bernard Danishefsky and Joe Leggett gave a report on the July meeting of the Police Advisory Board meeting. Updates on the police department DDACTS and budget approval were provided.
 - Janel Yapuncich of Neighborworks gave a report on the progress of the new apartment building and the Kranz property projects.
- New Business:
 - Kranz Park Master Plan Conceptions:
P&R Director Joe Patrelia and Representatives from Buckholt Landscape Architecture Design presented 2 concepts for the park. Those in attendance found parts of each concept favorable. We were informed that a final concept was due in three weeks and they would return at our next meeting with the final version.
- Other Business
