NOW ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION AWARDS

GREAT FALLS, Montana – The Great Falls-Cascade County Historic Preservation Office is seeking nominations for the 2024 Historic Preservation Awards. Individuals may nominate a person, project, or organization that has restored, protected, or shared the story of Cascade County’s historic places, and awards will be presented at a ceremony during National Preservation Month in May. Nomination forms can be found at <https://greatfallsmt.net/planning>, and submissions will be accepted through April 9.

Since 2001, the Historic Preservation Office has been presenting annual awards to the people and projects doing the on-the-ground work of preservation in Cascade County. Over 80 awards have been given to a huge range of recipients, including tradesmen, nonprofits, coalitions, and property owners for building restorations, mastery of a craft, stewardship, research, and more.

For more information, visit <https://greatfallsmt.net/planning> or contact Samantha Long, 455-8550 or slong@greatfallsmt.net.
